The guiding principles and criteria of the Roundtable on Sustainable Palm Oil (RSPO) management system are the subject matter of this seminar. You will learn how to efficiently implement and maintain an RSPO system to guarantee ethical and environmentally friendly procedures.

This course will cover a variety of topics including the principles and criteria of the RSPO, the benefits and challenges of sustainable palm oil production, and strategies for effectively communicating about these issues to various audiences. The course will also provide participants with hands-on experience in creating effective copy and messaging for a variety of formats, including press releases, website content, and social media posts.

The training is intended for individuals and organizations involved in the palm oil industry, as well as those working in communications, marketing, and public relations.

Benefits

- Improved understanding of RSPO-MS principles and criteria: The training will provide a comprehensive understanding of the RSPO-MS standards and requirements, and how to implement them in the supply chain.
- Enhanced compliance: The training will provide guidance on how to effectively implement the RSPO-MS principles and criteria, and ensure compliance with the RSPO-MS.
- Increased efficiency of auditing and certification processes: The training will provide information on the auditing and certification process, and how to effectively communicate and report on RSPO-MS compliance.
- Improved stakeholder engagement: The training will provide guidance on how to effectively communicate and engage with stakeholders about RSPO-MS compliance, and the benefits of sustainable palm oil production.

- Continuous improvement: The training will provide guidance on how to monitor and improve RSPO-MS implementation, ensuring that the organization is always striving for sustainable palm oil production.
- A competitive advantage: By being certified and compliant with RSPO-MS, organizations can demonstrate their commitment to sustainability and responsible business practices, which can give them a competitive advantage in the market.

Target group

The target participants for the RSPO Management System Principle and Criteria training are individuals and organizations involved in the palm oil industry, including:

- Palm oil growers, producers and processors
- Supply chain actors, such as traders and manufacturers
- Sustainability and compliance professionals
- Field operations personnel
- Auditors and certifiers
- Individuals and organizations interested in promoting sustainable palm oil production

This training is beneficial for those who want to understand the RSPO-MS principles and criteria, implement them in their operations, and ensure compliance with the RSPO-MS. It will also benefit those who are responsible for auditing, certification, communication and reporting on RSPO-MS compliance, and those who are interested in continual improvement and monitoring of RSPO-MS implementation.

Requirements

No Prerequisites required. Anyone can complete this course.
