Electric current is both a curse and a blessing. In addition to the many tasks for which we can use it beneficially, electric current is at the same time extremely dangerous for the human body. In this training unit, you will learn about the potential hazards of working with electrical equipment and how to effectively protect yourself and others at the workplace.

Benefits

At the end of the e-learning session, the participants should be able to learn the following areas:

- Electrotechnical qualification
- Effects of electricity on the body
- Protective measures
- Safety regulations for work with electrical systems
- First aid for electrical accidents

Target group

Employees in all occupational groups who receive regular instruction on health and safety in the workplace
