The industry-leading NEBOSH International Diploma in Occupational Health and Safety is a high-level qualification that prepares you for the future. You will expand your skills related to health and safety protocols, develop industry knowledge and proactively raise safety standards in your company.

Nutzen

Develop leadership skills in the area of health and safety with the NEBOSH Diploma Program. This program will enable you to:

- Assess health and safety policies within the workplace
- Manage or control aspects of health and safety, and implement practices to reduce risks
- Establish yourself as competent health and safety professional

Zielgruppe

The National Examination Board in Occupational Safety and Health (NEBOSH) Diploma is a high-level qualification. It is for people already working in the health and safety domain, wanting to enhance their competence, like:

- Health and safety managers, advisors or officers
- Compliance managers
- Training coordinators
- Quality, risk and environmental workers
- Engineers
- Consultants
