Learn the technique, application and limitations of the HAZOP study methodology, one of the commonly used hazard identification methods.

This module covers the skills needed and work involved as part of the HAZOP Study, except detailed HAZOP facilitator training.

Students can practice the technique.

Les objectifs

Participants will be able to :

- Critically review the HAZOP technique and output.
- Analyse how the HAZOP technique can be applied to a project's lifecycle such as Front-End Engineering and Design (FEED), detailed design, revalidation and decommissioning.
- Gain the skills to lead and prepare for a HAZOP workshop.
- Generate a HAZOP report.

Le public ciblé

- Project Managers
- Operations Managers
- Process Engineers
- Operators

- Health, Safety and Environment (HSE) Advisors
- Risk Management Practitioners

Les prérequis

- Education, skills or experience equivalent to undergraduate level.
- Risktec modules: Principles of Risk Management, Hazard Identification.

Le contenu de la formation

- Introduction to risk assessment
- Basic engineering terminology
